

WE have now received the greater part of our fall and winter shoes. In these hard times it behooves everybody to buy fustate goods and buy them low. We have every variety of shoes worn, and feel confident we can sell greater bargains in the foot and shoe line than ever offered in this place. All we ask is give us a call and see for yourself.

Nov. 25, 1834. H. EVANS & Co

Fair Warning.
Some of our subscribers complain to us very often that their papers are taken from their doors, where they are left by the carrier. Now any person who would be guilty of stealing another person's paper, in our opinion is none too good to do anything, and when once detected, the person should have his forehead branded with a mark as broad, black, and indelible as that of Cain—"Nuff said."

SCARCITY OF FUEL.—This is the cry that is heard all over our State and even over other States. Active steps are being taken by prominent men, with a view to so control the trade, that a good supply of coal and wood may always be kept, so that avaricious speculators cannot take advantage of the necessities of the public, when the waters are so low, that boating to any point of transportation becomes an impossibility. We see that in Lexington and in other places, movements have been set on foot to organize regularly chartered Coal Companies, whose object will be to obtain and keep constantly on hand a supply of fuel, and to furnish it to the citizens at moderate prices. This is as it should be, and we can see no valid reason why a similar institution should not be organized in this place. We hear our citizens frequently complaining of the scarcity of coal and wood and yet they will still bear the inconvenience and cost, in preference to consulting together and devising some means whereby this tax may be removed. It needs no extraordinary discernment to detect the fact that no city will ever prosper rightly, when the high price of fuel is about enough to consume the wages of the mechanic, without taking into consideration the exorbitant prices he has to pay for provisions. What is the result? Those who are able, dispose of everything they have and leave for some place, where they can earn an honest living while the others are compelled to remain and eke out a miserable, drudging existence. Our citizens should think about this matter, and as the inclement season of the year has arrived, let them meet and consult as to some course to be pursued in regard to this matter.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Mr. ALEX. BAYLEY, the keeper of the first toll-gate on the Lexington pike, was shot, a few days since, in the calf of one of his legs, by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of a friend who was riding with him. Fearful that notification would cause his resignation, he considered it necessary that his leg should be amputated, and it was taken off a few days since, a few inches above the knee. He is still in a critical condition, but we hope soon to see him restored to health. He is a very estimable gentleman, and has a large family dependent upon his labor.

RECONCILE.—A rencontre took place in Elizabethtown Friday evening, between Dr. BAYAS YONGE and Thos. D. Brown, in which Mr. Brown received two shots, one in the hip and another in the chest, and is believed to be mortally wounded. Brown fired four times and Yonge three times. Yonge was unhurt. These gentlemen had a rencontre some months since, in which Brown was slightly injured.

FIRE IN MR. STEELING.—We learn from the Mr. Sterling Whig, of the 1st inst., that about 12 o'clock the night before, a fire broke out in the confectionary of Mr. NEELY, and before the flames could be arrested, four buildings, all frame were entirely destroyed. They were occupied by Mr. NEELY, Mr. ESTEL, Rev. T. D. LEA, and Geo. BORTS. Nearly all of the furniture was saved. The loss is about $2,500—no insurance.

THE ACCOUNTS OF THE LOUISIANA SUGAR CROPS, published in the New Orleans papers, are unfavorable. They say the amount of sugar produced will fall short at least one-third compared with the last, owing to a deficiency in the juice of the cane; but the quantity of the sugar manufactured is described as being much better, as the juice is richer. Planters are busy grinding and rolling.

WILLIAM KIRKMAN.—The editor of the Helena Shields says it is confidently asserted that this individual has been seen in that town lately, and the Memphis Whig learns from his counsel in that city, that he will be present to stand trial as one of the Martha Washington conspirators at the present term.

FATAL AFFAIR IN BARDSTOWN.—An affair occurred in Bardstown, Ky., on Tuesday night, in which L. A. ABE was shot and killed by John Wilson.

DOUBLE RUNAWAY.—The other day the horses attached to a stage at Charleston, Va., ran off with a number of passengers in the coach, among whom were an eloping couple from White Sulphur Springs. All were more or less bruised and cut, but the wedding came off.

THE ARCTIC.—Capt. LUCE, it is said, is about to embark on business on shore. Mr. COLLINS, it is said, declines re-employing on his steamers, any of the persons who were in service on board of the Arctic.

THE LAST SNAKE STORY we have read is told by the editor of the Columbia (Texas) Democrat. He says he found a snake four feet in length coiled up among the exchanges on his table. Ugh!

MR. DAVIS FLOURNOY, of Smithland, Ky., late clerk of the Livingston Circuit Court, died on the 27th ult.

THE RICHMOND (Ky.) Messenger announces the death of Jos. TERRELL, an old and prominent citizen of that place.

A SCAMP.—A boy named GAIVES, aged only fourteen years, hailing from Lexington, Ky., who was in destitute circumstances at Dayton, Ohio was sheltered and cared for by a poor widow woman, and in gratitude for her charity, last week robbed her of all her money—thirty dollars, and decamped.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.—Mr. STANFIELD, of the firm of STANFIELD & KIMBALL's blast furnace, near Dover, Cumberland river, was shot by a secret enemy last Saturday week, the ball taking effect in his breast. His life is despaired of.

NAVIGATION has been resumed in Barren and Green rivers, as we learn from the Boatmen's Green Standard.

COURT OF APPEALS.

WINTER TERM.

Monday, Dec. 4th 1891.

The Court assembled—Present: MARSHALL, Chief Justice and CUNY, JAMES, and STRICK, Judges. (Coun't v Jones, 3 cases.) Clinton; Same v Carter, Clinton; Same v Craig, Jefferson; Same v Bird, Shelby; Taylor v Con'th, Shelby; Garlright v Same, Orlan; Sanders v Same, Jessamine; Driskill v Same, Anderson; Garrard v Same, Pendleton; Renaker v Same, Grant; Linsley v Tucker, Franklin; Bates v Arnold, Franklin; Crockett v Wilson, etc., Franklin; Miller v Ellis, Scott; Burdette v Same, Scott; Dent v Wright, Scott; Gault v Dougherty, Scott; Gomis v Breun, Franklin, affirmed by consent—were argued.

HOG-KILLING.—The following is a statement of the number of hogs killed and in pens up to last evening:

Killed.	In pens
Hull, Hunt, & Co., 23,293	1,300
Owley, Kinnaird, & Co., 19,777	550
Richard Arkison, 12,150	500
A. S. White & Co., 11,134	2,120
Jarvis & Co., 11,290
Huffman & Co., 11,290
Hamilton, Ricketts, & Co., 11,000
Unkilled, 1,590
Total, 114,244	5,070

The total number killed and in pens last night was therefore nearly 150,000 head. We have heard of the following sales since our last: 1,200 head, averaging 125 lbs., at $4.50 cash; 250 head at $1.75 cash; 135 head at $5 cash; about 150 head, very light, at $1.37 at $1.50; and various other lots at $1.75 to $3, the former price usually cash and the latter on four months' time.

The St. Louis Intelligencer, of Thursday, says: "The season for hog slaughtering and packing is at hand, and several establishments are in full blast. The weather is quite favorable for the business; not extremely cold but generally dry. The price paid in most cases for cured hogs, weighing 120 lbs. and over is $1.75 to $2.00. Ordinary and inferior lots range from $1.50 to $1.75 per 100 lbs. A lot of common quality came in today, for which $3.50 was offered but not taken when we left the market."—Law Jour., 4th.

INDIAN MURDER AND ABDUCTION.—The Galveston (Texas) Citizen & Gazette, of the 14th ult., copies the following shocking paragraph from the Alamo (San Antonio) Star:

Mr. H. Williams was killed by the Indians on Sunday last. He went to haul a barrel of water and his wife hearing him hallow near to see what was the matter. On arriving near, she saw six Indians, who had just finished the brutal murder of her husband and were on their way to her camp, where they took everything they wanted—also her three children—after which they went a short distance off and sat down to eat, where she went and begged from them her two youngest children. The Indians took her oldest child, Fanny, and the horses, and Mr. Williams in making her way to her children, got lost and did not find the house until daylight this morning.

This happened on the Medina, about 15 miles from San Antonio. Pursuit was made too late and the murderers escaped. The Western Texan of the 24th inst. says:

The company that went out a few days ago in pursuit of the Indians, who last Sunday murdered Mr. Williams, on the Medina, and carried off one of his children, came in yesterday evening. They report the Indians had been Comanches. They trailed them some distance, and finding it impossible to overtake them, returned. Near noon, they stole some horses and pressed with a rapidity that proved that they were getting out of the way, and expected pursuit. When they committed such outrages, it is entirely useless to pursue them, unless pursuit can be commenced almost simultaneously with the commission of the act, as they travel night and day until conscious that they are out of harm's reach. The company that went out to track the Indians against the perpetrations of such acts of violence, let our action precede and not succeed them.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT CAIRO.—Several Men Shot—Suicide of a Desperate Negro by Drowning.—Capt. BACCHER, of the American ship, which arrived yesterday from Cairo, has related to us the following desperate affair which took place on Tuesday. A negro named Joe Spencer, who keeps a boarding and lodging establishment on one of the wharf boats at Cairo, was sued out for a debt and summoned to appear before a justice of the peace. The negro armed himself with a revolver and took action with him a keg of powder and threatened to blow up the whole court in case judgment should go against him. Attempts were made to take the pistol from him when he fired in the crowd, wounding several men. He then took refuge on an old float and defied his assailants to approach him. He fired at all who came near. To avoid sacrifice of life, it was decided to shoot the float. At the first shot the negro was killed. He was immediately plunged into the river and was drowned. We have given this precisely as it was related to us by Capt. BACCHER.—Law Journal, 2d.

HOGS.—The arrivals have been very light and none of the houses are fully occupied. We estimate the killing up to last night at 130,000 head, with probably only a few thousand in pens. Prices are very firm, but there are but few sales making, and the market is mostly to drivers. We hear of the following sales: 200 head at $1.85 cash and 200 at $5 cash, both averaging 200 lbs.; 240 head, averaging over $200 lbs., at $5 cash; a few hundred light hogs at $1.37 to $1.75 cash, according to quality; and 600 head very heavy hogs at $5, on time. All these were Indiana hogs. There were few if any Kentucky hogs in market, and there are not many to come in.

In piece meats we learned of the sale of only a few hundred hams at 7 1/2 cts, 60 days, interest added.—Law Jour., 2nd.

FROM THE DESPATCH (H. Gazette), Nov. 24.
ASCENDED.—T. P. KIPPER, formerly merchant of this place, and more recently in Mowqua, eloped a few days since, with another man's wife, leaving his own here in a destitute condition. He has gone, it is thought, to New York. This same Kipper is indebted to merchants in St. Louis to the amount of six or seven thousand dollars, besides several thousand in this country. Before eloping, he sold his stock of goods in Mowqua on a long credit, took notes for the same, and sold them to his brother-in-law, Henry Davis, of Christian county, for one-third the face of them in cash. The notes are in such a condition that the county is out of the hands of this said brother-in-law. Mr. Jackson was security for Kipper for $700, which he will have to pay. Kipper, we understand, sold Mr. Jackson some sixteen or eighteen hundred bushels of wheat and corn in store at Naples, but before Mr. Jackson reached Naples, Kipper had disposed of the grain leaving Jackson minus $500.

ARRIVAL OF THE STAR OF THE WEST.

The steamer Star of the West arrived at 3 1/2 o'clock this afternoon, bringing 260 passengers, $737,000 in specie, and dates from California to the 24th of November, which were brought down by the steamer Cortez.

Among the passengers were Senator Weller and the Hon. J. A. McDougall. The news is of very little importance. In commercial matters there is little or no change. A fair business was done. The Democratic State convention met at Staunton, Col. Bayly, chairman, W. F. Ritchie and Robt. H. Hughes, secretaries.

A committee of one from each district was appointed to nominate permanent officers. They reported Oscar M. Crutchfield, of Spotsylvania, president, and thirteen vice-presidents. The secretaries are above confirmed.

Confusion ensued on a motion to go into nomination for Governor. After a long debate upon the rules as to the nominating vote, Mr. Shockford moved the convention would not make nominations for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General, which was adopted.

This is considered a triumph for the Wise party, it being the strongest in the convention. Exciting times are expected. Efforts will probably be made to further amend by adopting the two-thirds rule.

The Democratic vote in the convention is 62,400. The whole Democratic vote in the State is 70,000.
